

Dear Birth Mother,

We have looked forward to the journey of parenthood our whole lives. We are honored and blessed that you would consider placing your baby in our loving home. This is an exciting time and we are ready to answer any questions you may have while getting to know one another. We understand that being chosen to raise a child is the highest blessing we can ever receive. During this time we, along with our family, are praying for you in anticipation of welcoming this new joy into the world.

Walter and I have been together and married for five wonderful years. We met in a time in our lives when we both knew that we were ready to share our lives with one another. Together in front of our family and close friends we said our marriage vows. We vowed to love, honor, and respect one another, knowing in our hearts that our love would lead to a family.

As parents we vow to love, honor and respect your child and to treat them as our own. We have a beautiful family full of love, cousins, pets, aunts, uncles, grandparents, and friends waiting to welcome your child into our hearts. We are excited to learn about you and for you to learn about us. We are an open book and wear our hearts on our sleeves!

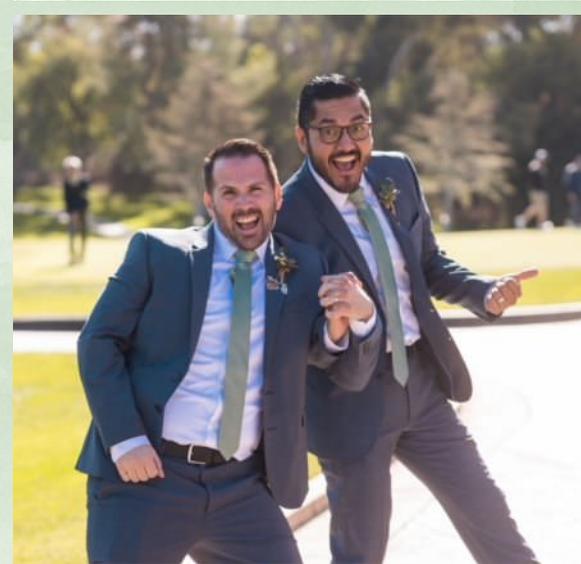

Forever Grateful,
Walter and Daniel

Our Story

Walter and I met in the Fall of 2015. Our first date was at a coffee shop after a long day of work. We were both pretty tired but the conversation and coffee was so nice that we stayed until closing. The chemistry was strong and over the next couple of months we both knew we found our forever. On a trip to New York, in the middle of Time Square, I asked Walter to be my husband. On November 11, 2018, in front of our family and friends we were married. On our wedding day we knew that our love would someday create a family.

Us: Daniel and Walter

About Walter

I grew up surrounded by the love of my family. I am the youngest of three siblings and come from a large extended family. Growing up I have the fondest memories of celebrating birthdays, holidays, and school activities with the support and laughter that comes from a large family. Many of my cousins went to the same school and lived in the same neighborhood and we were watched and raised by our aunts and uncles. I have worked in many different industries, currently I work from home as a Home Loans Processor. I love music and in school I played the clarinet. In my spare time I enjoy attending theater, concerts, and festivals. I enjoy exploring cooking, exercise, and playing with our dog, Winnie

About Daniel

I am the middle child of three siblings, both sisters. Family means everything to me and I have the fondest memories of holidays, birthdays, and special occasions surrounded by family. From a young age

I could not sit still, and my parents enrolled me in sports as an outlet. I like to be very active and have been involved in gymnastics for over 30 years as an athlete and professionally as a coach. I enjoy dance, crossfit, and obstacle course racing. I am a college graduate with a Bachelors of Science degree in Psychology. For a brief time, I worked in special education but ultimately carved a career path for myself heading a gymnastics program for boys and girls. I enjoy watching movies, travel, and spending time with our family, surrounded by our nieces and nephews,

" Our family is a circle of strength and love. With every birth and every union the circle grows"

We are ready and excited for your baby to join our family and we all pray for you daily. When Walter and I married we joined together our families and our circle of strength and love grew. Through the blessing of adoption your child will join a proud and humble family of first generation Americans from diverse cultural and ethnic back-grounds. Our family is a mixture of Mexican, Central American, European, and American backgrounds. Together we make up a family of Veterans, Teachers, Nurses, Dental Assistants, Coaches, Loan Processors, Machinists, Hospitality and Services workers. We are abuelos, moms, dads, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Our Winnie

In November 2020, we adopted our fur-baby, Winnie. She has been a wonderful addition to our family and loves taking us out for long walks and play dates at the local dog parks. Winnie has also been taking the Pet Smart obedience classes and loves meeting new people and is child friendly.

Dear Birth Mother:

In closing we hope that you have a better understanding of us as a couple and prospective family for your baby.

We hope that if you have any questions you feel comfortable to reach out as we are eager to know you.

Best wishes on this journey, for you and your child.

Love Daniel and Walter
